

VERY LARGE INCREASE

Gain in Railroad Business Indicates General Prosperity.

The Southern Pacific Company has announced work replacing the bridge at Boca with a span of solid masonry. It will be a viaduct that will last for centuries.

The raise of the times indicates rapid development for this city. The Journal has already presented statistics from the report of school attendance, postal business and building activities. The fact of the off repeated allegations of the city's growth, while permanent and substantial, has almost reached the proportions of a boom.

Further proof of this assertion was obtained yesterday in an interview with Mr. H. Pennington, president and general manager of the newly created Reno Steamboat Company.

Mr. Pennington said:

"The report of the local business for the month of September will show that during the month the sales of tickets from Reno to local points was 100 per cent greater than for a corresponding period last year. This is a very good indication of the local business."

The tickets were sold not merely to Reno people but to travelers who came to Reno to visit Nevada points and from Carson, Plumas, Modoc, Sierra, Mono, Lake and other nearby California counties.

"The sale of foreign tickets has also shown a big increase."

"This to me is indicative of improving conditions of prosperity here and in this region throughout its limits."

"People would not travel in this fashion if they were not making money."

"Of course it is impossible to get statistics on arrivals but they largely indicate prosperity. I understand that a large number of people are in Reno and are doing well and taking houses and other property and doing highly to their advantage."

Much Ado About Nothing

Will somebody, anybody, come to the rescue and sit on the Carson and Reno Wheelmen or take them out into a back lot and let them fight it out rough and tumble? This contention, quaddling, snarling, mud-slinging episode has passed the ludicrous stage and is becoming nauseating to the majority of the people in both towns. Who gives a hoot any way to see fellows lost seven-eighths of a mile and then lobby in over the tape. The people of Reno are proud of their speedy riders, but that's no excuse for the present silly conduct of a few members of each club. A little more of this nonsense and a corporal's guard could not be rounded up in the State and dragged out to a relay race. Please, both of you outfits, go away back and lie down like good dogs.

But, really, all joking aside, Stanley has an honest desire to ride the race of his life against Jack Wing. If the meet can be arranged for and carried out in the spirit of friendly rivalry, perhaps it would be the best way after all to settle the controversy.

Will Soon do Business at Same Old Stand.

With deep regret we learn the serious illness of Major Dennis of the Reno Journal, who has been compelled to go to San Francisco for medical attendance. We trust that the Nestor of Nevada Journalism will soon return to us safe and well.

The Journal is grateful toward the Chronicle and other State paper that have shown kindly concern over Major Dennis' illness.

He has not gone to San Francisco nor is he confined to his bed, but is walking in the sun and air, retaining strength sufficient to enable him to resume his editorial pen shortly.

Again in Trouble.

Fred Hassall, the fraternity man, who dunned a couple of Reno citizens a few months ago and served time for it, is back at his old tricks. He is in jail at Smithville, Texas, charged with obtaining $50 by false pretenses.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the yearly meeting of the Grand Oil Company will be held in Reno on October 15, 1901.

TERSE AND TO THE POINT

Little Bits of Items, but Still Worthy of Mention.

The Board of Equalization will meet again Monday.

A train load of cattle from the east was rested here last night.

The Washoe County Bank building will be heated by steam.

Ralph Meyer has gone to the east part of the State on a cattle-buying trip.

Henry Butters and several associates have become interested in a promising mining property in the vicinity of Steamboat Springs.

H. Leater has a new ad in this issue of The Journal. It is well worth reading. Mr. Leater carries a splendid line of goods in his store, even if his place is not as showy as some. He discounts lots of other people in the prices of shoes and clothing. He and M. Frank & Co. are leaders in these lines.

Splendid Program for This Evening.

This evening an entertainment and dance will be given in Investment Hall by the Women's Relief Corps. There will be a splendid literary and musical program; the latter under the direction of Mrs. Rostead. There will be instrumental and vocal solos, duets, quartettes and choruses. The guitar and mandolin club will give a number of selections and play accompaniments.

Recitations will be given by Mrs. E. C. Shearer. At the conclusion of the program a banquet will be served, followed by dancing.

A Good Band to be Organized.

Arrangements are being made to organize in this city a band that will be the peer of any musical organization on the coast. Prof. Smith, for years leader of the famous Nevada State Band, will be the guiding spirit. Already nearly forty musicians have offered their services. The band will in a few weeks be ready to give an exposition to the public of the pleasing art of harmony.

ABOUT READY FOR BUSINESS

Nevada Water, Light and Power Co.

MEANS MUCH FOR RENO AND VICINITY.

A Little Information on What the Two Big Brick Structures Will be Used For.

The Nevada Water, Light and Power Company. This is a corporate name that few Renos have heard of and yet evidences of its work have been seen for months. Without blaring of trumpets or proclamations upon the street corners this syndicate has gone quietly forward. It has acquired property and rights. It has erected a pole line from the Truckee River. General Electric Company's line to the new power house. It has ordered tens of thousands of dollars worth of machinery, which is now on its way to this city.

The company has certainly been busy, but it has told the world nothing about its affairs and it remains for The Journal this morning to lay before the public authentic information regarding the plans of this corporation.

Senator Flanigan is the moving spirit of the enterprise. He has done most of the planning and a greater portion of the execution. The company is a local one. A majority of the stock is held by residents of this city. This much was told The Journal by Senator Flanigan yesterday. He furthermore said:

The Nevada Water, Light and Power Company will by the middle of November have 1000 electric horsepower for distribution among local industries. One of the principal consumers will be the Sparks Mining Company. Work will begin immediately upon a pole line to Wedekind City and by the time the reduction works there is completed the power will be ready to turn its wheels. It will also be used to operate that company's hoist and sinking pump. Other mines in Wedekind City are expected to use this cheap power.

Within the town of Reno a number of industries are already arranging to install cheap power. Notable among these concerns is the Riverside Mill Company.

The company has received rights of way to construct tracks from the Southern Pacific and N-C-O. companies' lines to the power house and one spur track has been laid already.

In addition to transforming and distributing power the building will contain a modern artificial ice plant. A pure product will be furnished to the consumer at a price much lower than is now paid. A deep well will be bored and the purest of water used in making the ice. The capacity of the plant will be twelve tons daily.

The corporation will also conduct a wholesale slaughtering business. Butchers in Reno, Carson, Virginia, Verdi, Floriston, Wadsworth, Truckee and other towns will be daily supplied with meat in wholesale quantities.

The cold storage feature of the establishment will be greatly beneficial to the community. Compartments will be rented to producers where they may store, butter, eggs, fruits and other perishable products until the market justifies them in selling.

When completed, this plant will represent an investment of $100,000. It will be one of the leading industries of Reno and will doubtless pave the way for other investments beneficial to the community.

The Journal heartily commends Senator Flanigan and his associates for this manifestation of confidence in the future of Reno. Their heavy investment will not only vastly benefit the town, but it is hoped, will be a dividend payer from the start. A few more men of the Flanigan type and Reno would forge ahead as no other town in the west is today.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

Adjoining the power house another huge brick structure is being constructed and is nearing completion. This is an independent concern. It is owned by Senator Flanigan individually and not by the corporation that is operating next door.

For a time it will be used as a warehouse. The principal product stored there will be wool. An effort will be made to handle the entire product of this neighborhood and that of northwestern Nevada, eastern Oregon and northeastern California—a vast region where hundreds of thousands of sheep graze.

It is also planned to cover the southern territory, including southwestern Nevada and southeastern California. Mr. Flanigan's agents will go throughout these territories and arrange with the sheep men for their clips.

Instead of charging a commission of 1-1-2 cents a pound and 15 cents a month storage per bale, a commission of one cent a pound will be the only expense to the sheep man.

Senator Flanigan said:

"My agents will be empowered to advance to the sheep men loans upon the wool at a low rate of interest, so that they will practically sell their wool as soon as it is delivered and be paid for it. Also there will be a provision by which they will retain absolute control of their clips until the actual sale takes place.

"The warehouse will also be a repository for grain, flour, hides, pelts, coal, hog products, etc."

"Although this matter is still in future, it might be said that plans are under consideration for installing a large wool scouring plant. Neither is a woolen mill a matter that has not also been favorably considered, but no steps will be taken to this end for several seasons."

SALESMEN WANTED.

WANTED—Salesmen by reliable jobbing house, five traveling salesmen to place high-grade specialty line with merchandise trade, high commissions and permanent positions to good men, full time required. R. 78-158 Fifth Ave. Chicago.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

News of the Day Presented in Brief Form for Perusal by Busy Readers.

The Republicans of San Francisco have nominated a former Carsonite for supervisor—Al. Lillienfeld.

A case of scarlet fever is reported in Carson.

The Columbia won the final race of the international contest yesterday on her time allowance in the closest heat of the series. The cup will remain on this side of the water for two years more at least.

The Court of Inquiry proceedings developed nothing of a sensational or substantial nature.

Game Warden Makes Arrest.

Flash and Game Warden Merklinger made the rounds of all the hotels and restaurants yesterday in search of contraband of war.

So far as he was able to ascertain there were no evidences of breaches of the game law except at one place.

The restaurant above alluded to was exposing to the view of the epicure several juicy trout. The season for the catching of this fish has passed and the unlucky restaurateur was placed under the strong arm of the law an hour or two later.

Mr. Merklinger will fight the case in the court for he is determined to see that the letter and spirit of the game law are obeyed.

New Strikes in Wedekind District.

Yesterday the rumor was confirmed that two important strikes had been made at Wedekind City. The Fraser strike is an absolute certainty. The ore is of the bonanza sort and there is nothing to do but sack and ship it and wait for dividends.

H. G. Ramsey has encountered the purest of chloride in his claim and it will be a shipper before snow flies so that you can notice it.

The First Contest of the Season.

A game of football—the first of the season—will be played on the University campus this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The contesting teams will be the U. of N. first and second elevens.

Good entertainment is assured and everybody is invited. Admission 10 cents.

TO PARENTS AND STUDENTS.

Straining the eyes while studying means inflamed eyelids, headaches, nervousness, cross eyes, muscular weakness and thousand other defects. Parents should help to make studying a pleasure for children, instead of a task, by taking them to the Frank Golden Jewelry Company and having their eyes properly examined to see if there is any defect in the eyesight.

HIS MONEY COMES EASY

An Itinerant Piano Tuner Picks up Sixty Bucks.

A young man by the name of Aldridge professing to be a piano tuner, got into the good people of Reno yesterday for at least $60.

After making himself a good fellow with the saloon men on the Row he found himself shy of change. With a simple twist of the wrist he engrossed a check for $20 on his "account" in the Bank of Nevada and received from Spiro Franzovich a large piece of yellow money in exchange for it.

The same form was gone through with at the Palace Hotel only he doubled up this time.

Shortly after the bank opened it was discovered that Mr. Aldridge had not favored that institution with a deposit. By this time the bird had flown. Aldridge is said to have worked Winnemucca in similar fashion.

Will Bore Deep for Pay Rock.

Herman Zadig of San Francisco, who is heavily interested in Comstock mines, has evolved a novel scheme for prospecting the Brunswick lode. A newly-invented drilling machine will be used, providing arrangements can be made with the various companies owning territory on the lode.

The drill which it is proposed to use bores a hole four inches in diameter and has a boring or sinking capacity of from thirty to forty feet in twenty-four hours, over 1000 feet per month. With that speed a four inch hole can be bored from the surface to the Suto tunnel level in about six weeks by following the dip of the lode. It is proposed to bore at several points along the lode where the prospect for finding ore is most favorable.

Cases Set for Trial in District Court.

The criminal cases have all been set for trial in the District Court. The Hammermith case will be tried on the 15th. Next day it will be the State vs. Joe. Coss. On the 17th J. W. Spurling will be tried. Next day Robert Lane and Samuel Anderson.

All the jurors have been excused until the 15th.

The civil cases will start in on the 15th. Among them are Taylor vs. N-C-O., Christie vs. Lonkey and Simmons vs. Simmons.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich"; the second, how to retain health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a dependent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to Hodgkinson and get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75 cents. Get Green's prize Almanac.

WHAT'S YOUR FACE WORTH?

Sometimes a fortune, but never, if you have a sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin—all signs of Liver Trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills give Clear Skin, Rosy Cheeks, Rich Complexion. Only 25 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

THE PAULIST MISSION

Another Discourse Last Evening by Father Wyman.

The doctrinal instructions given at the Paulist Mission in St. Mary's Church are attracting much attention from people of all creeds. Last evening Father Wyman explained the words of the Apostles' creed, "He descended into Hell," as follows:

"By the word 'hell' is not meant the hell of the damned. The word hell is sometimes used to denote indiscriminately the place of departed spirits. It is so used in the Apostles' creed. By it is meant that place of which St. Peter speaks when he says that our Lord preached to the spirits in prison. "It is the teaching of the church that no soul could enter heaven until our Lord, Himself, had ascended thither. What, then, became of the souls of the just who had lived and died before the time of our Savior? They went to the intermediate place which is sometimes called limbo. For those who had fully satisfied the justice of God for their sins by penance in this life limbo was a place of happiness but for others it was a purgatory. However, since the ascension of Christ, all souls that are perfectly pure enter Heaven immediately after death, but those who have not fully satisfied the justice of God in this life are cast into the prison of purgatory from whence they cannot go until they have paid the last farthing."

"Nothing defiled can enter the kingdom of heaven, hence purgatory is just as necessary for the punishment of lesser sins as hell is necessary for the punishment of mortal sin."

General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Fenton A. Bonham will leave in a day or two to enter upon his duties as general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association. He expects to spend the next few months in Sacramento and Los Angeles. Mr. Bonham has been preparing for this work throughout his college life. He is a worthy young man and will doubtless be eminently useful in his new field.

TRUE CITIZENSHIP.

RECENT events have accentuated the discussion of the duties of citizenship and the removing of the causes which cause men or classes of men to indulge in threats against the safety and dignity of our government. If all men were ideal citizens of this Republic we would have an ideal Republic. If the doctrines of American citizenship were universally promulgated, and adopted, we would have no anarchists. But herein lies the fatal defect, lack of unity, which causes both sectional and political differences between men of the nation and the best we can do to approximate the results we seek to bring about.

The application of true citizenship to anarchy has been suggested. It is no doubt true that if we could take the foreign element that comes into our country and educate them as we do the children of the nation we might in a measure eradicate the impulse of anarchy.

True citizenship ought to lessen the differences between classes. It is the clash of classes that is inimical to the security of government, but the attributes of true citizenship should be exercised as well by the millionaire as by the pauper. The yielding of position, the easing of power in the hands of the wealth controlling should be met by a yielding to conservatism in the hands of the people.

Possibly some utopian plan may yet be found to bring about a universal feeling between man and man, but at the present time the only remedy available seems to be the education of all classes as to the duties of true citizenship, a reverence for the purity and integrity of the American home, protection and defense of our public schools, less demagoguery by politicians, more tolerance of the press, less bigotry in the church, and above all a strict adherence to the doctrine and teachings of our government—a free government based upon the Declaration of Independence, the integrity of the Constitution and the equal rights of man.

American citizenship is an ideal citizenship. The education of our children in our schools should be the true beginning and a generation of assimilation will make all our people one in spirit, in fraternity, in support of our government and laws which will keep out and deport those who who cannot appreciate true citizenship, and uphold its ideals, should be stringently enacted. That our nation, the first in history to guarantee political freedom, freedom of religious worship, the first to offer an asylum to the oppressed of every clime, should become the victim of the ignorance and hate of those whom it would lift up, serves as a serious problem whether or not the limitation ought not to be applied to the dregs of Europe who come into our midst to defy a government whose protection they claim. The assassination of Lincoln was due to a bitter sectional war, the assassination of Garfield was due to a certain political system which inflamed the mind of a crank. The assassination of McKinley, due to none of these causes, coming when not expected, arising without justification, the result of a political or anarchistic code promulgated in Europe, arises from no cause in our government, but serves to call in a startling manner that firmness, not leniency, and a slight limitation upon our boasted license of freedom in promptly crushing this class is one of the most sacred requirements of true citizenship.

True citizenship will protect itself. It is a matter of self congratulation that the spirit prompting the late crime finds neither support nor sympathy in any party, in any church, among any class, in any paper, except among the execrated outlaws of all nations—the red handed Anarchists.

THE policy of President McKinley is still a living issue. His death has made it no better or worse than it was when he was living, nor has it been sanctified, or the reverse by his untimely removal from the scene of his earthly labor. There is no more reason why his policy should not be criticized by those who opposed it in his lifetime than that a suit commenced against a living man should not be continued against his estate after his death. It is only the snivelling and hypocritical Pecksniffs of the press who plead the death of the President as a silence of comment upon his policy which so nearly effects the interests of the nation and which does not share the tomb of its lamented author.

OUR country should be the highest concern of every citizen, the purity of the American home, the aim of our best citizens and these considerations should be superior to the wave of political partisanship which sweeps across the country every four years. Defend the constitution and preserve the integrity of the American home and the triumph or defeat of any political party will have little effect on the destinies of our country.

IF THE papers did as much space writing for the advertisement of San Francisco and of her resources as they do in the abuse of rival organs San Francisco might in the next ten years be the greatest city on the Pacific coast. In the meantime Seattle is forging ahead and San Francisco is waging a war of rival journals.

REDEEMED PLEDGES.

THE last platform of the fusion party contained a number of planks representing the conservative interests of Nevada. The legislature, last winter, following that platform redeemed every pledge made to the people. It has been the custom in this State to abuse legislative bodies and every legislature is always considered the worst until the next one meets. Last winter seems to have been an exception to the rule and when the people of the State come to judge of its work, it will stand out as commanding the approbation of the people of Nevada. The Republican press of Nevada have, and will in the future, take occasion to criticize the work of that body but they will be met fairly and squarely upon the issue when the time comes.

One of the chief movements, to the good judgment of the legislature, will be the defeat of the lottery project. There were Republican papers in this State who in order to gain a petty advantage would have urged the passage of the lottery in order to have damned the fusion legislature. Having defeated the amendment little praise was given, but on the contrary there would have been a great roar go up, had the amendment passed. The Assembly repealed the prize fight law. The Assembly, true to its party pledges, passed an eight-hour law; the legislature passed a revenue law which had the wholesome effect of reducing taxation in all the counties in the State.

The action of the legislature was wise, conservative and sensible; its members conscientious and honest and there never was in the history of the State a body of men who labored more earnestly for the State's welfare than those of the 20th session of the Nevada Legislature.

THE Honolulu Republican wants to know if the constitution was lost in the ocean on its way to the islands. What is the Republican complaining about? Haven't the islands the stars and stripes, and does it not know that the Republican party endorses the Supreme Court decision that the constitution does not necessarily follow or accompany the flag.

AN eastern preacher last Sunday expressed in his pulpit his wonder and regret that such men as Rockefeller, Morgan and Hanna should be spared and a good man like President McKinley be made the victim of assassination. In other words, that preacher would endorse anarchy and murder provided he could choose the victims.

WAS the assassination of Goebel anarchy or just political expediency?

BIGOTRY and intolerance are our nation's greatest menace.

MINING IN THIS STATE

Called News of Nevadas' Most Important Industry.

The parties holding a $5000 option on the Grand Prize at Tuscarora are about to begin development work on that property.

With the campaign on the proposition of the Tonopah Mining Company at Tonopah, Nevada, running faultily and with an army of lessees raising ores of the most sensational quality. Manager J. C. Anderson came in from the camp again yesterday and is now conferring with local millwrights with a view to equipping the business with a plant that will enable him to handle ores of the value of about $20 per ton that are now going upon the dump. —Salt Lake Tribune.

U. L. Wertheimer of Delamar, Nev., was found guilty of robbing a gold mine and holding the gold dust in his hand. The color of his wig gave him away and the court fined him $10. S. E. Wertheimer and George C. Fetterman of the same place were found guilty of being in collusion in the matter of robbing the mine and were fined $5 each.

TOT CAUSES NIGHT ALARM.

ALL AROUND THE STATE

A Few Gleaned Paragraphs of Nevada News.

For the month of August the Yerington Creamery Company distributed among the farmers who furnish milk to the creamery something over $2000, says the Yerington Times.

The Elko county grand jury, which meets tomorrow, will have fifteen cases to investigate.

Last Friday morning Miss Daisy Wilson of Pine Grove left Yerington ostensibly to attend school in San Jose. The same day Mr. L. F. Pattison, superintendent of the Sprague mine, left for Wabuska. Later news informed us that both parties stepped off at Dayton, procured a marriage license and were made man and wife by the Justice of the Peace of that town. —Yerington Times.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from Hodgkinson. Regular size, 75 cents. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

PIANOS ON EASY TERMS.

And at prices to suit any one. The prices range from two hundred and twenty-five dollars up—twenty-five dollars down and the balance in ten-dollar monthly installments.

These pianos are all fully guaranteed and have the latest improved action and are the style upright. No one on earth sells better pianos or better-toned pianos, or gives more value for the money than C. J. Brookins. Brookins has lived and sold pianos in Reno for thirty years. Why not buy your piano of Professor Brookins, who knows all about pianos and has made them a great study for thirty years? Call at 224 Virginia street, C. J. Brookins' store.

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Take Notice.

BOLTON'S LAST YEAR.

The Way He Spent It Preparing For His Death.

"Billy Bolton, the Lansburg brewer, was a very rich man and one with a host of friends," said an up state man to the New York Sun. "His brewery in Lansburg was a profitable concern, and he practically owned about all the saloons in that town."

"One day after a consultation his physicians told him that he had Bright's disease and that he surely would not live more than a year. Billy took their word for it and made up his mind to make the far fly while life was left. He had never traveled much, and so he decided to go around the world."

"He took with him a congenial friend and plenty of money, and away they went. They left a trail of fire and ashes through all the capitals of Europe and the queer and strange places of Asia and Africa. After nine months they came back, and Bolton brought with him the most marvelous collection of souvenirs and presents that any man not a professional collector ever brought into this country. The duties amounted to $3,000."

"Arrived in Lansburg, Billy hired the town hall, sent his packing boxes filled with these oriental and European treasures up to the hall and had them all taken out and put on exhibition as though for a church fair. Upon each article he marked the name of some friend whom he wished to remember with a gift. There were hundreds in this category, but Billy had presents for them all."

"On the day appointed for the presentation he invited his array of friends to the town hall. To each he turned over the present selected for him, and amid the cheers of his grateful and admiring fellow townsmen the hall was stripped of its beautiful things."

"When the last present had been placed in the hands of its recipient, Billy went back to his home and lay down to die. Within the year his physicians' prophecy came true, and the town gave him the finest funeral that any man ever had."

He Hacked Off His Leg.
Caught in a bear trap on the banks of the Athabasca, near Milford, Me., John McLeod, a lumber scaler, was obliged to take out his jackknife and cut off his leg. The trap was too heavy to move and was sprung in such a way that he could not reach over and release it. He was far from any human being, and the only way out of it seemed to be to cut off the leg.

"That was done easily, because the leg upon which he operated was of wood. When he was strapped back to camp, I made him mad to hear the jeers of the French Canadian cook or the lumberjacks."

"Why you no take off you whole wood leg, ah? You get out um thrap and go spile you wood leg 'tall, ah?"

Such a way out of the difficulty had not occurred to McLeod before.

SKILL IN THROWING OF MAIL BAGS.
The busiest clerk in any crew or car is the one who is detailed to receive and throw off the sacks and pouches. To hit a heavy mail sack and throw it from a car moving at the rate of a mile a minute is a matter of good target shooting. "Looks easy enough," commented one of the veteran clerks at the latter case, "and it does seem as if a man should be able to hit a station platform without much difficulty, but you see that station is passed and gone in about one second. Then the suction of a train running at this speed is something terrible, and until the knack of throwing a pouch is learned a man is liable to feed the wheels with a few letters."—Saturday Evening Post.

Origin of the Word 'Sterling.'
The origin of the word "sterling" is very curious. Among the early miners of coin in northern Europe were the dwellers of western Germany. They were so skillful in their calling that hammers of them were invited to England to manufacture the metal money of the kingdom. The strangers were known as "sterlings." After a time the word became "sterling," and in this abbreviated form it has come to imply what is genuine in money, plate or character.

How Niagara Wears the Rock.
All who have been to Niagara know that the cataract is divided by Goat Island, the larger portion of the fall being on the Canadian side of the river. This part is known as the Horseshoe fall and was so named because years ago it was identical with a horseshoe in shape. A few years ago a V shaped break occurred toward the New York side, and since then other changes have taken place, until today the Horseshoe fall is more like its original form, but clearly shows the effects of the wearing of the waters.

Many people fail to see how the falls wear the rock away, and this is a little mystery until the exact conditions are realized. The ledge of rock over which the water of both the American and Horseshoe falls flows is of hard limestone. It is all of 40 feet thick and naturally very heavy. Underneath this ledge of limestone there are the shales of the Niagara locality. This soft rock is many feet thick. The rock of the Horseshoe fall is unprotected, and as the water falls over the precipice and boils in the river below it washes away the soft shale beneath the limestone, so that the limestone is left in shell-like form, projecting far out into the gorge. Observant visitors to the falls have no doubt noticed this condition.

In the course of time the shale foundation of the limestone ledge is excavated to such a point that the unsupported ledge breaks away by its own weight, and the crest line of the Horseshoe fall recedes so much farther. Then the water attacks the newly exposed shale, and in time the process outlined is repeated. This has been going on for centuries, and it will continue until the falls of Niagara are no more.—Philadelphia Record.

The Preacher Was Glad She Swore.
The daughter of a well known clergyman in Washington had a severe attack of scarlet fever when she was 3 years old which resulted in deafness. Up to that time she had been a regular little chatterbox, doing her infantile best to carry out the proverbial:

Being a woman, she'll talk forever!

Upon her recovery her parents were nearly heartbroken to find that she had not only lost her hearing, but the power of speech as well. Whether she had really forgotten how to talk or whether it was obstinacy or lack of confidence they could not determine, but despite all efforts of the best tutors the child remained a mute.

One day when she was nearly 10 years of age she was playing with a cat, and with as much cruelty as though she were of the sterner sex she used its tail as a handle with which to pick it up. The poor animal, not appreciating the economic use of the said tail, inflicted a deep scratch across the chubby little hand.

"Damn that cat!" she said, flinging it down.

And her father, devout clergyman as he was, clasped his hands and, raising his eyes to heaven, exclaimed:

"Thank God, that child has spoken at last!"—Detroit Free Press.

The Pie Foundry.
A man who recently visited a pie factory in Chicago thus describes it:

"The day we were there a special run was being made on pumpkin pies, and I looked in vain for any signs of pumpkin rinds. One of the foremen grinned and told me in strict confidence that real pumpkin was never used in pumpkin pies at present except possibly in a few remote and very primitive New England villages. The substitute was a mixture of sweet potatoes, apples and cheap flour flavored with a chemical extract. I tasted some of the stuff and was satisfied he was telling me the truth."

"Cranberry pie contains only enough cranberries to 'make a showing,' after the manner of the oyster in the church fair stew. The rest is apple jelly colored red and flavored. I have forgotten the other substitutes employed, but these will give you a general idea of the morality of the business."

"The average output of the foundry was one a second, or about 36,000 pies for a working day. The manager told me they were shipped all over the pie belt in specially prepared cradles."
